Compiled by Bethany Wright – Year 7

Beat The Bullies

By Jaiden Bartlett

Words can hurt and make you feel sad,
When I haven't done anything bad.
Sometimes words that hurt the most,
Start of as a joke and end up with a lump in your throat.
You are the bully who says I'm FAT!!
I am the victim who is bored of you saying that,
You are the bully that gets under my skin,
I am the victim who's going to win!!

#stopbullying

By Tadiwa Nyoni (part 1)

I'm the kid who you made cry,
I'm the kid that you made lie,
I'm the kid who's afraid to play,
Because I know you'll hurt me everyday.
Anyway people words don't hurt
Well words do hurt just as much as physical pain

You call me fat,
I've had enough of that.
You say you wont give me a punch,
Yet everyday I come home having my bones crunched.

#stopbullying

By Tadiwa Nyoni (part 2)

Don't you think how I feel,
Once this fantasy became real,
That I would react,
You don't know my past.
Or what I've been through,
and you adding this too,
mum and dad fighting every night,
not knowing who's wrong not knowing who's right.

The Mask

By Maddison Lane

Put on the mask,
Hide yourself away.
Don't let the bullies see you,
In any other way.
Cover up your imperfections,
Don't let anyone see.
After all, the bullies told you,
"You cant be who you want to be!"
WAIT...

Take of all your make-up,
You're perfect as you are.
Don't let the bullies leave behind,
Their nasty scar.
Peel away the mask,
Let you're true self shine though,
But most importantly of all,
LET YOURSELF BE YOU!!!

Fears

By Bethany Wright

Knot in my throat,
Just cant swallow,
But all my friends,
In their hope, do they wallow.
They are happy and content,
The opposite of me.
From the fears they devour,
I long to be free.
Take a steady breath,
I know ill be fine.
Fears are my imagination,
They'll pass over time.
I have my friends and family,
No more silly tears,
Because my life is ahead of me,
Just forget my fears.

The Bully

By Oscar Jefferson

Just because you're small and he's tall,
Doesn't mean he's above us all.

Just because he calls you gay,
Doesn't mean you have to run away.

Get out of bed, take off the mask,
Even though it's a massive task.

Stand up to him and look in his eyes,
Don't be scared don't be shy,
Say these words loud and clear,

"STOP BULLYING ME NOW, IM TELLING YOU HERE!!!"

The Bullying Game

by Regan Snow Milton and Harvey Chance
(Part 1)

Sitting there getting called a slag,
All those words hurt so bad,
You make me feel so bad,
I've got all these feelings I wish I never had.

Getting out of bed is so hard,
I don't want to come to school to this,
I am walking around my feelings are scared,
I just need some bliss.

The Bullying Game

by Regan Snow Milton and Harvey Chance
(Part 2)

Sitting there getting called a slag,
All those words hurt so bad,
All the bullies make me sad,
I've got all these feelings I wish I never had.

Walking to school with a frown on my face,
Why do I have to come to this place?
There is no reason why,
I should just say goodbye.

Hard Times

by Regan Snow Milton and Harvey Chance
(Part 1)

You're calling me all these names,
I would rather sit near the Thames,
What is the reason for this?
Can't I just have some bliss?

All these names hurt me,
Why can't I go home?
Can't I just have some tea?
Why do you have a nasty tone?

Hard Times

by Regan Snow Milton and Harvey Chance
(Part 2)

You're calling me all these names,
They hurt so bad,
Why can't you be the same?
All these names I've had,

Hey Mr. Bully,
Why is it me?
Why aren't you nice?
All of this is just reality.

Goodbye, Good Luck By Bethany Wright (Part 1)

We are sorry to see you leave,
We wish you all the best.

As you glide through struggles, step by step,
And take life's difficult test.

You are all talented people,
And you've really raised the bar.
But don't be afraid to go further now,
You've already come so far.

Goodbye, Good Luck

By Bethany Wright (Part 2)

KEEP CALM
AND GOOD LUCK

We hope that you are happy,
And that you give all you can give.
Goodbye, Good luck, see you soon,
You've got your life to live.
