Dear Parent/Carer

GCSE English Language and Literature Revision Guides

Your child is soon to embark on their second year of study for both GCSE English Language and Literature and we have the opportunity to offer them revision guides and work books designed specifically for their courses. The books are intended to help consolidate and support the work done in lesson by strengthening their understanding of the texts and exam skills covered, as well as providing opportunities for them to practise the skills learnt.

Please see attached the books which are available through CGP and complete the order form. Alternatively, you can pay through ParentPay or by cash or cheque (made payable to LFATQ).

There are revision guides for both 'A Christmas Carol' and 'Jekyll and Hyde', but we are not offering these at the moment until we are sure which text your child's class will be studying – as soon as staff have confirmed their choices, we will then be able to offer these as well. Work books for specific texts are also due for publication in the summer term, we will also let you know when these are available.

All orders should be received by Monday 15 May. Completed order forms should be handed into Reception and any queries should please be emailed to me (email address below).

Yours sincerely

K Wilson-Dyke
