Scandal in Bohemia – plot overview	deduction – the process of reaching a decision by looking at the facts that are known. Holmes is able to use his skills of deduction to solve crimes.	Sherlock Holmes – a fictional consulting detective created by Arthur Conan Doyle. He is known for his intelligence, introspection and dual nature. He is described as an 'observing machine' because of his ability to capture the essence of people with seemingly very little evidence.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The King of Bohemia plans to marry a Norwegian princess. However, he previously had a relationship with a woman called Irene Adler. Adler is threatening to ruin his engagement with a picture she has of herself and the king together. Holmes tricks Adler into revealing where she keeps the photograph, but she outsmarts Holmes and escapes with it. Adler decides not to use the picture against the king. She leaves a picture of herself in its place, which Holmes keeps as a reminder of her. 	scandal – a scandal is something that shocks people because they think it is morally wrong. The King of Bohemia fears that scandal of his relationship with Irene Adler being exposed.	Dr Watson – Holmes' former flatmate, a doctor and his closest companion. The stories are told from his perspective, working as Holmes' assistant.
The Red-Headed League – plot overview	periodical/serial – books, magazines or other entertainment that are released on a regular basis. The Strand Magazine was a periodical that published the Sherlock Holmes stories.	Irene Adler – a famous American opera singer who had a relationship with the future King of Bohemia. To Holmes, she is 'the woman' who outsmarted him.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Jabez Wilson gets a job with the mysterious 'Red-Headed League' because of his 'flame' coloured hair. One day, he is mysteriously told that he is no longer needed by the league so visits Holmes to ask him to investigate. Holmes discovers that his story reveals a plot to steal from a bank vault which is successfully prevented. 	introspective – when you examine your own thoughts, ideas, and feelings. Sherlock Holmes can be introspective . This makes him a better detective.	King of Bohemia – in the Victorian era, Bohemia was an area of central Europe; today it is a region of the Czech Republic. The King is engaged to a Scandinavian princess but five years previously was madly in love with Irene Adler. Because of his status, he was unable to marry her at the time, which he regrets. The King still respects Adler.
The Blue Carbuncle – plot overview	dual nature – Holmes has a dual nature: his quiet introspective side, and his manic detecting side.	James Ryder – head attendant of the hotel where the Blue Carbuncle goes missing. He works with his accomplice Catherine Cusack (the countess' maid) to steal the jewel and frame John Horner for the crime. He is racked with guilt and confesses when Holmes questions him.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A policeman named Peterson is left with a man's hat and Christmas goose. He takes the goose home to eat and discovers a blue carbuncle (a rare, and very valuable jewel) inside the goose! Holmes recognises the jewel as the one that was stolen from The Countess of Morcar. Using the hat as a clue, Holmes and Watson set off to discover how the blue carbuncle was stolen and how it ended up in a goose. 	Fallible – someone who is fallible makes mistakes. Someone infallible is always right. Holmes seems infallible but Irene Adler proves that he is, in fact, fallible.	Jabez Wilson – a London pawnbroker who has distinctively red hair. His business is struggling so he takes the job working for The Red-Headed League. Wilson was tricked by his assistant Vincent Spaulding who worked alongside another criminal to use his shop to rob the bank next door.
	Background information	Vincent Spaulding/John Clay – Jabez Wilson's assistant. This is actually a disguise for John Clay who attempts a bank robbery using Wilson's shop as an easy passage.
